U.S.A. vs. Leslie Janous

Docket No. 3:10-CR-00124001

Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release

COMES NOW Trine Robinette, United States Probation Officer, presenting an official report upon the conduct of defendant Leslie Janous, who was placed under pretrial release supervision by the Honorable R. Leon Jordan sitting in the Court at Eastern District of Tennessee, on September 27, 2010, under the following conditions:

Submit to the location monitoring program and abide by all requirements of the program and instructions provided by the pretrial supervising officer.

Home detention. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; other court-ordered obligations; or other activities pre-approved by the pretrial services office or supervising officer.

Respectfully presenting petition for action of court and for cause as follows:

The defendant was given permission to work a photography job on April 18, 2011, and was to return to her residence at 8:00 p.m. She failed to return to her residence and her whereabouts are unknown at this time.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER

A warrant be issued and she be brought before the Court for a hearing to determine whether or not her bond should be revoked.

ORDER OF COURT

Considered and ordered this 19th day of April, 2011, and ordered filed and made a part of the records in the above case.

Thomas H. Phillips

United States District Judge

I declare that under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Respectfully,

Trine Robinette
